

PhD RESEARCH THESIS COMMITTEE'S RECOMMENDATION FORM
for PhD QUALIFYING EXAMINATION

Instruction: This form may take the PhD candidate 5 minutes to fill in.

The Qualifying Examination should be held between 12-18 months of start of PhD candidature. This form is to be completed by Members of PhD Research Thesis Committee and submitted to Head of Department for support at least 2.5 months before proposed date of Qualifying Examination.

PART 1 - TO BE COMPLETED BY MEMBERS OF RTC
To : Head of Department
The following PhD candidate has completed the required coursework and is ready for the Qualifying Examination. Please find attached an abstract of the candidate's research protocol :
Name of Candidate :		Matriculation No.:
Department:	This is the first/second* PhD Qualifying Exam of the candidate.	Proposed Date of Examination:
Thesis Title :
Recommended by PhD Research Thesis Committee:
Name	Signature	Date
_____	_____	_____
Chairperson of RTC
_____	_____	_____
Co-Supervisor/Member of RTC
_____	_____	_____
Member of RTC
PART 2 - TO BE COMPLETED BY HEAD OF DEPARTMENT
I <input type="checkbox"/> Supported <input type="checkbox"/> Do Not Support the RTC's recommendation.
Comments (if any):
_____		_____
Name & Signature		Date

PART 3 - TO BE COMPLETED BY VICE-DEAN (RESEARCH)

I Approved Do not approved the application.

Comments (if any):

The completed original form is to be sent to Registrar Office (Attn: Tan Ching Ching) and a copy to be returned to the Chairperson of RTC.

Updated : May 07