

Organized by:

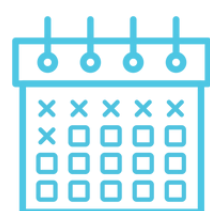

Centre for Advanced Dental Education
Faculty of Dentistry

Supported by:

"Current Paradigm Changes in Orthodontics "

by: Prof. Seung-Hak Baek (S. Korea)
DDS (Seoul), MSD, PhD Orth (Seoul)

Date : 26 Mar 2025 (Wednesday)

Time : 9.00am - 4.30pm

Venue: Main Seminar Room, Level 10, NUCOHS

7 CPE
points awarded

Centre for Advanced
Faculty of Dentistry

9.00am Registration & Light refreshment

9.30am Opening speech by Prof. Kelvin Foong, Director of the Discipline of Orthodontics and Paediatric Dentistry, Faculty of Dentistry NUS

9.40am Lecture 1:

- History of Damon System

Lecture 2

- ·What is 'Light Force' and How to apply it in Our Daily Practice?

11.00am Break

11.15am Con't of Lecture 2

Lecture 3

- Efficiency-Based Orthodontics in Ext and Non-Ext Treatment

1.00pm Group photo & lunch

2.00pm Lecture 4

- What I have Learned from 28 Years' Experience of Orthodontic, Orthopedic and Surgical Tx for Cleft Patients

3.00pm Product update by Dr Grace Oh, Clinical Director of Envista APAC (Ormco)

4.00pm Q&A session and Closing

About the speaker:

Prof. Dr. Baek is the President of Korean Association of Orthodontists and the past president of Korean Society of 3D digital Orthodontics and Korea Cleft lip and palate association. He is a professor at the Department of Orthodontics school of Dentistry of Seoul National University, Seoul, South Korea and a former visiting scholar at NYU, USC and UCLA, USA. He has published numerous articles in the prestigious orthodontic journals, and he is a member of editorial review board of Angle Orthod, AJODO and KJO, associate editor in progress in Orthodontics.

Registration link: <https://forms.gle/MiqusduqXERehJ7t8>